

Members of Cabinet Take Cut in Pay

By STERLING GREEN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Though the wealth of the Nixon cabinet won't match that of the "nine millionaires and a plumber" of the original Eisenhower Cabinet, most of its members will suffer pay cuts by coming to Washington.

A Cabinet secretary draws $35,000 a year. The men picked by President-elect Nixon from banking, law and the construction industry have been doing a lot better than that. Most of the public officials and educators he chose have been doing about as well, and only two of the appointees are likely to improve their financial status.

Nixon himself reportedly drew an income of around $200,000 a year as a senior partner in a New York law firm. That gives some kind of clue to the income of the incoming attorney general, John N. Mitchell, who was a senior partner in the same firm.

The long-time Nixon friend and former attorney general is a member of another major law firm of New York and Washington, serving wealthy corporate clients.

Two of the three governors who will come to Washington did not improve their paychecks. The state of Michigan pays its governor $40,000 or $50,000 more than George Romney, former head of American Motors Corp., will make as secretary of housing and urban development.

John A. Volpe makes $35,000 as governor of Massachusetts. But salary is not Volpe's foremost worry for this one-time head carrier and carpenter organized a multimillion dollar construction operation that bears his name.

The Cabinet's two bankers also would do better financially to stay out of government.

David M. Kennedy's bank, biggest in Chicago and eighth biggest in the country, pays him far more than he will get from the U.S. Treasury. Maurice Stans, a former budget director under President Eisenhower, also will find it unnecessary to scrimp to get by on his Stans, a former budget director under President Eisenhower, also will find it unnecessary to scrimp to get by on his Secretary of Commerce pay. He was president of Western Bancorporation in Los Angeles, and, more recently, president of the New York banking house of Glorie, Forgan, William R. Staats.

Even the Cabinet officers drafted from the traditionally poorly paid ranks of educators are not bettering themselves noticeably, if at all.

Clifford M. Hardin, incoming secretary of agriculture, makes $35,000 as chancellor of the University of Nebraska.

The University of Chicago refuses to tell the salary of George P. Shultz, who will be secretary of labor. But professors' pay ranges up to $30,000 and Shultz as dean of the graduate school of business presumably gets more.

Winton M. Blount, who will be postmaster general, now draws zero salary as president of the United States Chamber of Commerce. But Blount won't be hurt by the Washington assignment because he presides over a vast contracting empire, Blount Brothers Corp.

Gov. Walter J. Hickel of Alaska draws only $27,500 in gubernatorial pay, but he also is a

Texarkana to Vote on Tax

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — Texarkana residents will vote next March on a $2.5 million building program that includes a new junior high school and a football stadium.

The program will be financed by a six-mill tax increase.

builder and developer and reputed to be a millionaire.

That leaves Rep. Melvin Laird, who will be secretary of defense, and Lt. Gov. Robert H. Finch of California, who will be secretary of health, education and welfare, as perhaps the only Cabinet officers who will improve their financial status.

Laird makes $30,000 as a Congress member and Finch earns $25,000.

A special White House commission has recommended that the salaries of Cabinet officers be boosted to $60,000, and this would lessen the financial loss considerably for most of the newcomers.

Treatment Royal for Visitors

By ROBERT T. GRAY
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — They were brought to the White House by a daughter of the president-elect and conducted through it by a daughter of the President.

They sat in the speaker's chair in the House of Representatives and were greeted at the Federal Bureau of Investigation by J. Edgar Hoover.

Secret Service agents followed closely and officials of the Smithsonian Institution served as guides.

It was, all in all, far from a typical tour as children—of practically all ages—of the newly designated Cabinet members followed the tourist paths through Washington Thursday.

Tricia Nixon, 22-year-old daughter of the president-elect, was the arranger and leader for the day-long expedition.

"I wanted to get all the Cabinet children together," she explained. "But the tour was Daddy's idea."

The group of 33—it dwindled throughout the day—rolled up to the White House aboard a bus, and Mrs. Luci Johnson Nugent was there to meet them.

"It was quite a surprise when she met us, she was very gracious to be there," said Tricia who had not been in the White House since her father left the office of vice president eight years ago.

Serving as guide with the help of the curator's staff, Mrs. Luci Nugent provided both historical and personal recollections of her years in the White House.

"This can be the loneliest house in the world but if you want it to be, it can be the most rewarding time of your life," she said.

What did the guests think of the White House? "It looks like it's glad to see you instead of being snobbish," said 10-year-old Jim Hardin, whose father will be secretary of agriculture.

Ronna Romney, daughter-in-law of Gov. George Romney of Michigan, who will be secretary of housing and urban development, said she was impressed that "Luci Johnson took the trouble to show us around."

Priscilla Finch, 12, gave a sweeping endorsement to the nation's capital: "It's really a beautiful town."

Daughter of Lt. Gov. Robert Finch of California, who will be secretary of health, education and welfare, Priscilla said she was not worried about moving from Sacramento.

"We move every four years on the average, anyway. If we don't, we get bored," she said.

When the tourists reached the Capitol they were led onto the House floor by chief doorkeeper William "Fishball" Miller, who made one of the few mistakes of the day.

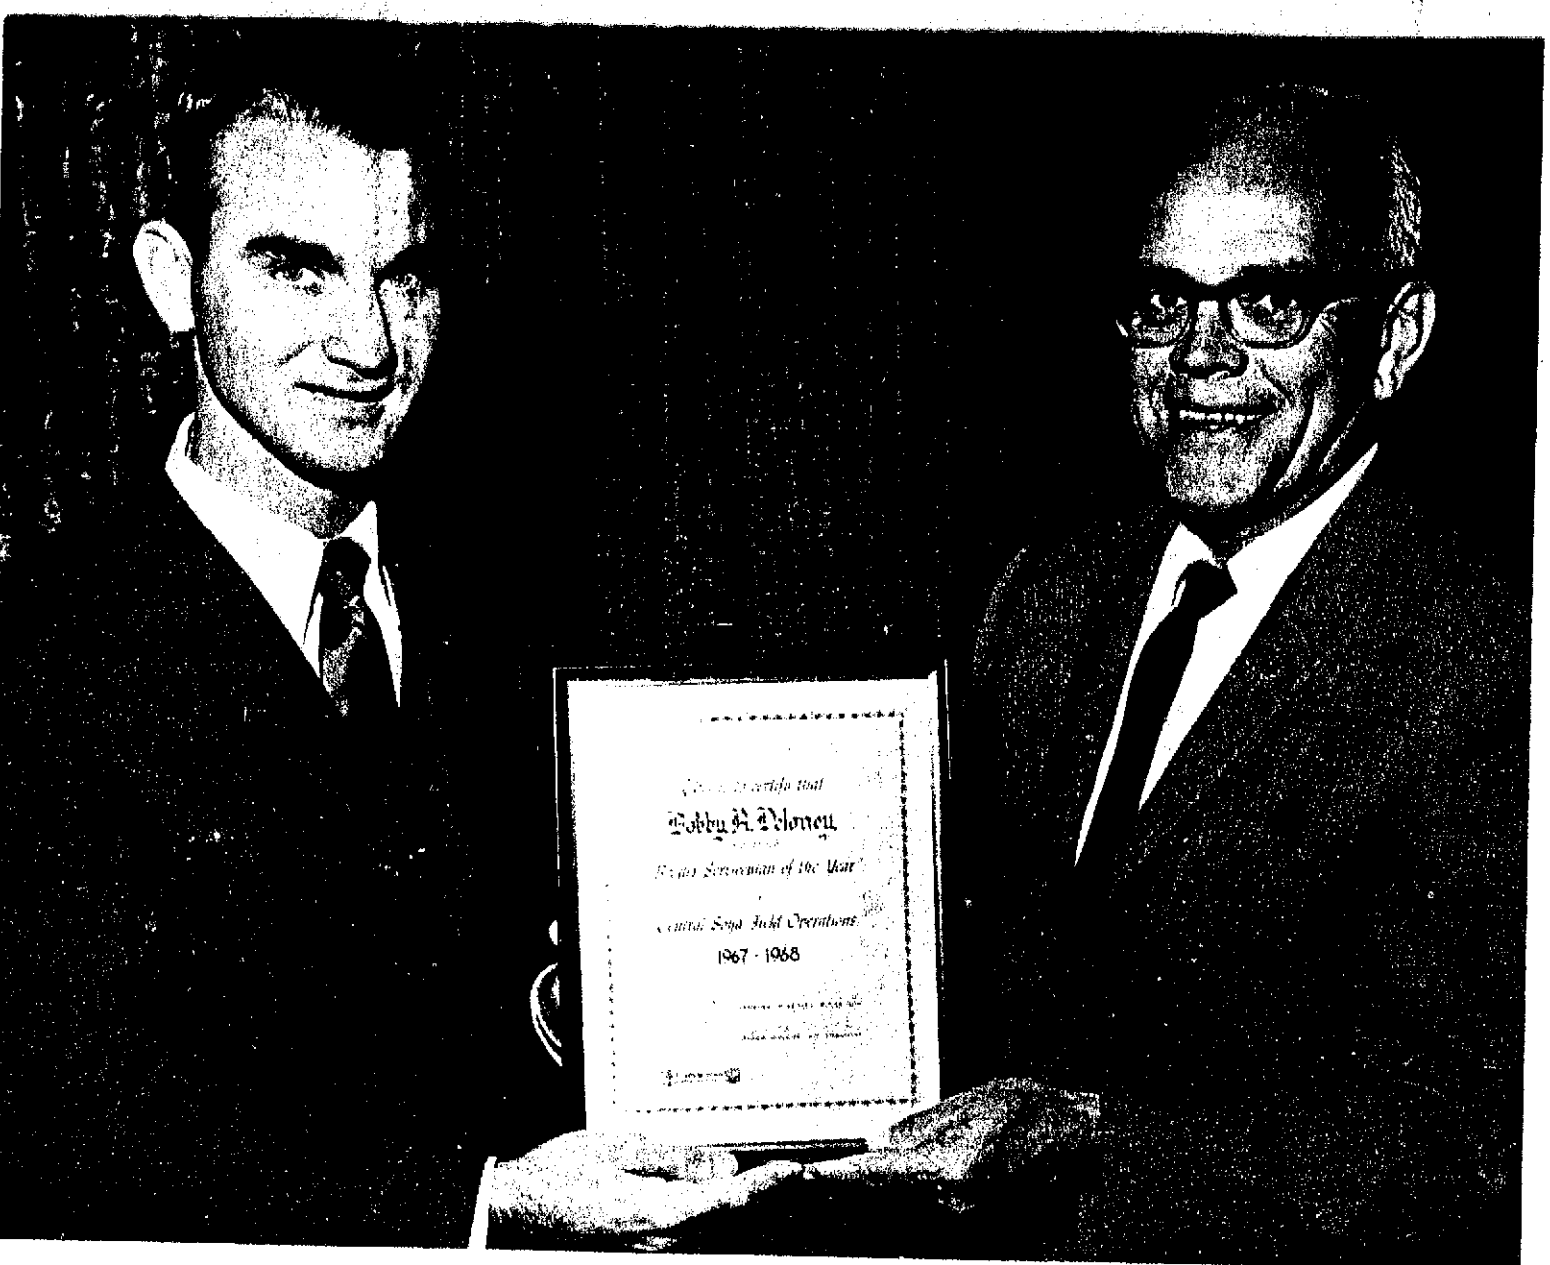

Miller, introducing himself to Jim Hardin, said, "Your daddy is secretary of labor."

Young Hardin stuck to his guns and responded, no, "agriculture."

At the FBI, Miss Nixon winced as a guide told how John Dillinger cut his fingertips and poured battery acid on them in hopes of erasing his fingerprints.

One of the most eloquent reactions of the day was from 6-year-old Carl Hinkle, whose father will be interior secretary, as he walked into Statutory Hall in the Capitol with an older brother: "Gee, whiz, Joe."

Purcell Seeks to Make the Ballot Secret

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell said Thursday he plans to offer a bill to the 1969 legislature that will insure the secrecy of the ballot.

Purcell, indicating this would be part of a general recodification of state election laws that his staff would produce for the legislature, said under his proposal, election officials would be required to paste a black sticker over the numbers on ballots so the ballot of a specific voter could not be traced without a court order.

Presently each voter is assigned a number as he enters a polling place. The numbers are assigned in numerical order as the voters enter. The number is marked on a ballot stub, which also contains the number of the ballot itself. When a person votes, the stub and the ballot are torn apart and placed in separate boxes.

When the ballots were counted election night, under the Purcell proposal, election officials or other persons could not see the numbers because of the black sticker and determine how anyone voted. The stickers could be removed only under court order.

Child Killed in 2-Car Collision

ROGERS, Ark. (AP) — Angela Louise Miller, 9-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Miller of Rogers, was killed Thursday in a two-car collision about three miles southwest of here on a county road.

State Police said a car driven by Mrs. Miller, 20, collided with a car driven by Mrs. Sue Mitchell, 31, of Rogers.

Mrs. Miller was hospitalized at Rogers and her son, Mark, received only minor injuries.

Mrs. Mitchell was treated at Rogers then transferred to a Fayetteville hospital. Her three children escaped with minor injuries.

Firm Seeks to Buy Another

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Allied Telephone Co. has applied to the state Public Service Commission for permission to buy the stock of Allied Telephone Co. of De Queen, and of Rural Telephone Co.

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — At left, Bobby Ray Deloney, Nashville, Ark., has been named "Broiler Serviceman of the Year" for 1967-68 by Central Soya Company.

Deloney was entered in the company-wide competition by Jack Neighbors, broiler program manager for the company's Nashville, Ark., location. He competed with broiler servicemen throughout the company for the honor.

The newly-named Broiler Serviceman of the Year is 25 years old and has been with Central Soya since April of 1963. He joined the company at its Nashville, Ark., broiler growing operation as a truck driver and was promoted to broiler serviceman in October, 1965. He is married and has a son and daughter.

The Broiler Serviceman of the Year Award is based on several criteria, including cost of production, grower education in local and company programs, maintaining and improving high quality in grower operations, and dedication to his assignment within the company.

"Bobby considers himself a 24-hour a day, seven day a week servant for his broiler growers," Neighbors commented. "We feel that his continuous effort and cooperation in working with growers in local company programs was tops and that he accomplished his goal to be our number one serviceman by working hard and using his knowledge of broiler diseases, medications and management techniques."

Deloney was presented his Broiler Serviceman of the Year award by Dale W. McMillen, Jr., president of Central Soya.

Marshall Is Declared a Disaster Area

MARSHALL, Ark. (AP) — The City of Marshall, scene of a major fire in its downtown section Tuesday night, has been declared a disaster area, Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark., said Thursday.

The designation will allow persons affected by the fire to arrange long-term, low-interest loans.

The fire loss was estimated at $300,000, and it was covered by less than 20 per cent insurance. Most of the north side of the town square was destroyed.

Blizzard Strikes in Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A one time Pacific storm—now grown into a full-fledged blizzard—whipped through the northern Midwest today and posed a menace to highway travel over much of Minnesota.

A cold wave drove temperatures downward from the Canadian border to the Texas Panhandle and eastward through the Mississippi Valley. The arctic outbreak ended several days of record December mildness.

Winds up to 45 miles an hour heaped 4 to 8 inches of snow into travel-impeding drifts in northern, north-central and western Minnesota and the eastern Dakotas.

The Minnesota Highway Department reported visibilities reduced to zero in northern and western sections and it advised against travel in the storm areas. The department also reported highways slippery in central and south-central portions.

Temperatures plummeted below zero over the northern Rockies and ranged into the teens as far south as the Texas Panhandle. Glasgow and Cut Bank, Mont., were 6 below shortly after midnight.

Thunderstorms erupted ahead of the cold front from Louisiana to the Lower Great Lakes. Up to 3 inches of rain soaked parts of Texas and Louisiana during the night.

In the Far West, a new Pacific storm approached. Gale or storm warnings were posted from the central California coast northward into the state of Washington. The blizzard sweeping the north-central states grew out of a similar storm that pounded the Pacific Northwest early in the week.

Warming, southerly winds funneled into the eastern third of the country to drive away much of the chill that had stung the East and South for several days.

Woman Injured Fatally

PIGGOTT, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Hattie Langley, 73, of Piggott was injured fatally Thursday when the car she was riding in collided head-on with a car driven by Mrs. Neta E. Boyd, 37, of Paragould.

The collision occurred south of Rector on Arkansas 139. Police said the victim was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Ivan, 74, who was admitted to a Piggott hospital. Mrs. Boyd was reported in fair condition at a Paragould hospital.

Miner's Wife Finally Has Her Baby

FAIRMONT, W.Va. (AP) — Barbara Toler finally had her baby Thursday night—a 7-pound 11-ounce boy.

Barbara was expecting the child last month when her husband, Dennis, and 77 other coal miners were trapped by fire and explosion inside Mountaineer No. 9 mine near Mannington.

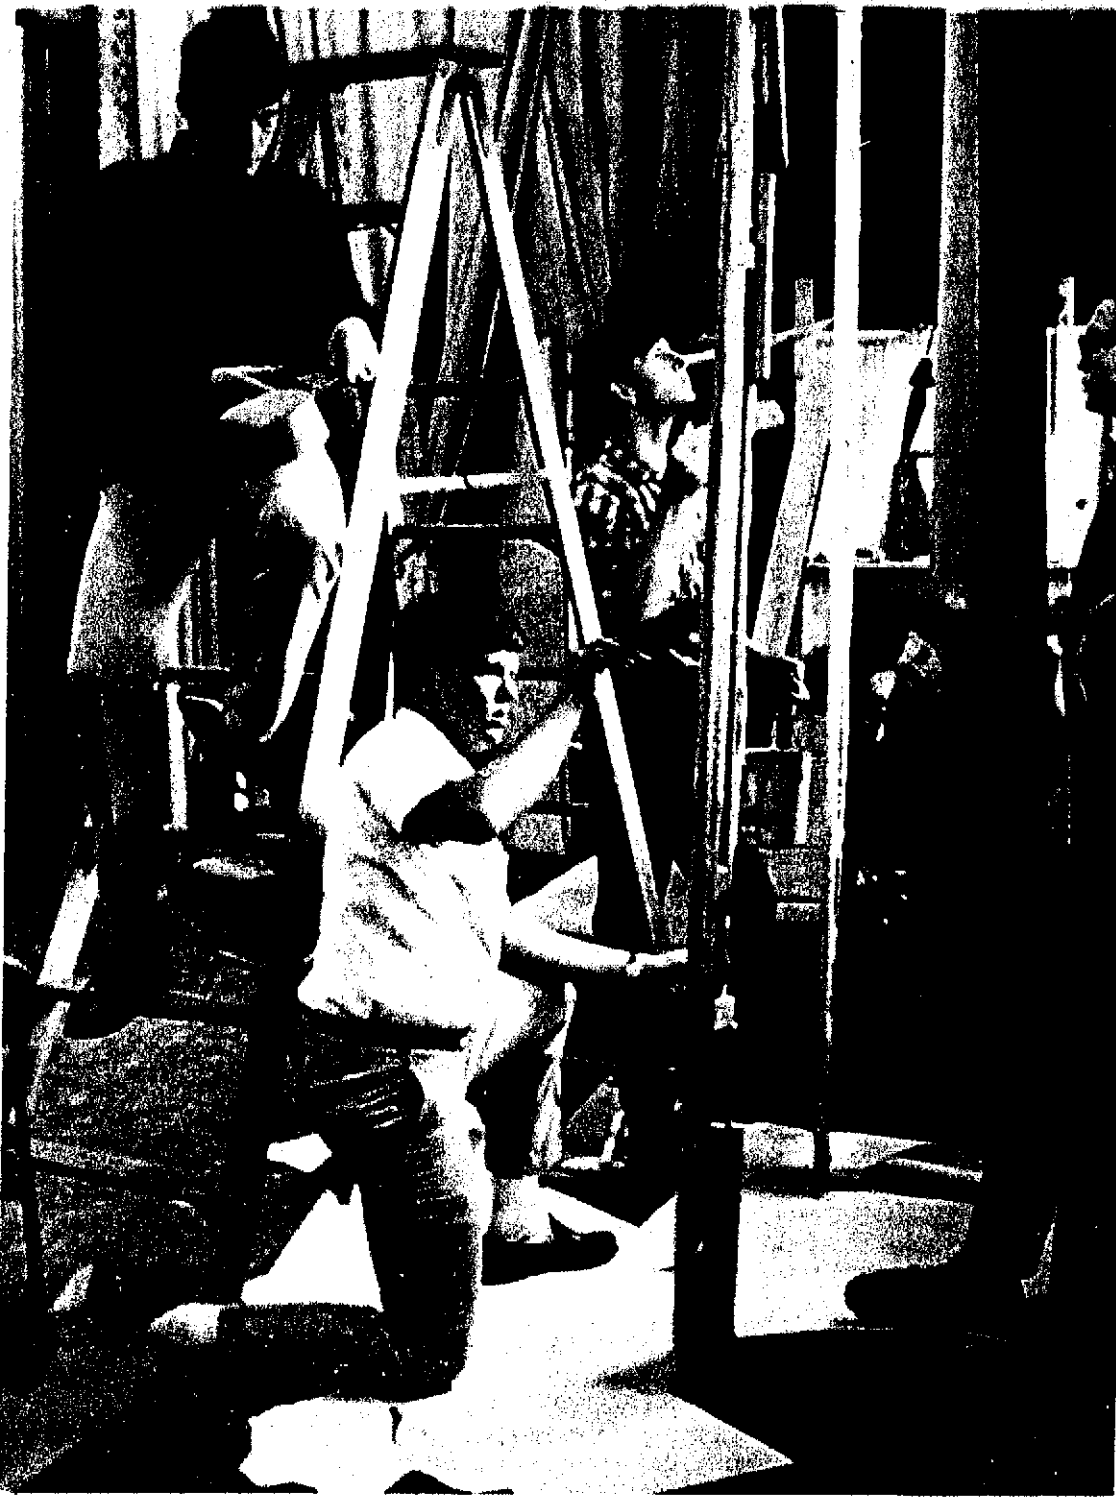

The pretty 24-year-old brunette vowed not to leave the company store until she received word of Dennis as rescue efforts continued for ten days.

The company store served as an information center during the long vigil. With the baby due momentarily the Red Cross made arrangements to turn their mobile canteen into a delivery room.

Barbara spent most of those ten days talking quietly with her sister whose husband also was trapped in the mine. One day she brought a clean shirt for Dennis because she said she knew he'd come out all right and would need it. But she said she was mad at herself "for forgetting to bring him a clean pair of pants, too."

When the decision was made to seal the mine, thus making it a tomb for the 78 miners, Barbara was distraught. She caught pneumonia and several times

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — When

President-elect Nixon introduced his Cabinet to the nation's television audience Wednesday night on a three-network broadcast, about one-quarter of the entire population was watching.

Both CBS and NBC ordered audience samples from the same research company, but since the research department of each used a different set of total estimates—they are usually broken down by audience that watched a portion and audience that tuned in during any average five minutes—each network came up with a different projection of the total. NBC's was 60 million viewers and CBS' was 50 million. But even with a 10-million difference, they are awesome statistics.

And, while on the subject of statistics, the program that recently drew the greatest amount of anger from the viewers—"Heidi," which started its broadcast on schedule Nov. 17 at the expense of the windup of the NBC pro football game—continues to justify itself. According to the authoritative Nielsen ratings, the program was the most popular special broadcast of the season, and attracted almost half the viewing audience.

In a list of specials published in the trade paper, Variety, the season's top 10 specials included Bob Hope's three shows, and shows starring some other old favorites, Jack Benny, Frank Sinatra and Tennessee Ernie Ford. Also on the list were the Ann-Margret show and the Miss Teen-age America Pageant.

Midseason is a time to repair weak spots in the TV network fabric by getting rid of shows without popular appeal and replacing them with new ones.

It is also a time to try to remodel other shows in hopes that change will improve ratings—although historically it rarely has.

NBC will attempt some repairs on its day-time game show, "Snap Judgment," by an unusual method. The format will be changed so that it will become exactly like old "Password." Password was a long-playing CBS game show that was dropped last season—because experienced false labor pains. Dr. Thomas Evans, Barbara's obstetrician, put her under sedatives for a while and reported she was "in real good spirits now."

She told me she wanted a boy," Dr. Evans said. He said during one of her frequent trips to see him she mentioned she hoped to spend Christmas in the hospital. The baby was born in Fairmont General Hospital.

The birth of Barbara's baby raises the number of dependents of the Mannington disaster to an even 200. About 125 are children.

Preparing stage props for the senior play, "Quit Your Kidding," are speech class members Terry Fry on the ladder; Houston Cannon and James Laughard, painters; and Bo Burke and Ronnie Brown, overseers.

Twelve Hope High School seniors are cast in a three-act farce-comedy, "Quit Your Kidding," to be presented tonight in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

The cast includes Sherry Crank, Donna Connelly, Linda Cummings, Sandra McCorkle, Janelle Odom, Pam Butler, Gay

Working behind the scenes on stage props have been Bo Burke, James Laughard, Steve Gunter, Ronnie Brown, Tim Ross, and Terry Fry.

For the first time the play is being presented first semester rather than second semester to avoid conflict with senior activities.

He ruffed a third heart with his king of trumps, entered dummy with the king of diamonds, cashed dummy's ace of trumps to pull West's queen of trumps and to get rid of another little spade, then he led dummy's nine of diamonds and made two more diamond tricks when East's jack fell.

He was still left with a low spade but he had his 12 tricks. This type of play is known as a dummy reversal. Jeff started with five trumps but ruffed hearts with three of them to leave dummy with a long trump. Of course he was lucky but he could have been even luckier. Had hearts divided 4-4 he would have been able to discard one more spade and wind up making a grand slam.

In one of the later rounds of the national team trials Jeff Westheimer chose to make a slightly unsound two-club response to Ira Rubin's one-heart opening. Somehow or other he couldn't sign off short of six clubs.

West opened the queen of spades and when Jeff saw the dummy he wished he hadn't bid quite so ambitiously. Then Jeff started to look for a way to bring home his very doubtful contract. He decided that he would have to be lucky in trumps in order to bring it home. Therefore he won the spade lead with the ace, led a club at trick two and finessed dummy's 10.

It held and Jeff was ready to go after 12 tricks. Before you read any further, see if you can figure out how he made the slam after that lucky start.

Peyton Place Going After Five Years

By GENE HANDSAKER

Associated Press Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Will Rodney Harrington recover from paralysis? Is his wife Betty seeing her ex-husband Steven Cord? Will she get her inheritance?

Such current "Peyton Place" plot problems are as nothing to the anguish of its fans over a real-life cliffhanger.

Is the Monday-Wednesday television soap opera going off the air after this, its fifth year, clobbered in audience ratings by the madcap powerhouse "Laugh-In"?

From coast to coast "P.P." partisans are writing ABC protests like: "I was shocked, 'Say it isn't so!' 'It's my family's favorite program.'"

A woman pleads: "Even my husband watches most times, and he doesn't like anything." A schoolgirl argues: "I always try to do my homework so I can watch it."

But Rowan & Martin's "Laugh-In," NBC's blockbuster now No. 1 in Nielsen ratings, has knocked "Peyton Place" out. Even Lucille Ball, long queen of TV's Monday nights, has fallen to about 25 per cent with her "Here's Lucy" on CBS.

The hour-long "Laugh-In" starts a half hour ahead of the 30-minute "Peyton Place" and "Here's Lucy." Formerly devoted fans of both forget or decline to switch.

So, is "Peyton Place," a mare's nest of small-town lives and loves adapted from the late Grace Metalious' sexy 1956 novel, going off the air?

"The future of the show will not be known until mid-February, when its option period is up," says ABC.

But Paul Monash, executive producer of "Peyton Place" since its start, says: "Peyton Place is definitely canceled."

"Let's say it's suffering from clinical death. It has been pronounced dead by the doctors but in very rare instances, sometimes through artificial stimulation, the patient is revived."

The stimulation in this case was a telegram from the production company, 20th Century-Fox Television, to television editors in 30 cities.

"As you may have heard," the wire said, "our 'Peyton Place' series will be going off the air next summer. According to ABC-TV's present plans the series will air one episode a week starting in February."

The announcement brought protests from viewers by postcard and letter.

The question in the continuing drama of "Peyton Place" is: Will such protests keep it on the air?

But Rowan & Martin's "Laugh-In," NBC's blockbuster now No. 1 in Nielsen ratings, has knocked "Peyton Place" into a 20 per cent or smaller share of the Monday night audience. Even Lucille Ball, long queen of TV's Monday nights,

Rockets Out to Redeem Themselves

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Toledo Rockets, a disappointment last season, are out to redeem themselves in college basketball this campaign.

Bob Miller and Steve Mix combined for 53 points to lead the Rockets to a decisive 88-65 victory over 15th-ranked Western Kentucky in New York's Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

"We have four seniors who were 23-1 as sophomores, but fell to 16-8 last year," said Bob Nichols, Toledo coach. "They're out to prove something this season."

"Everything went right for us, but we won't know how good we are until we play 10th-ranked St. Bonaventure Saturday night."

Miller scored 28 points and Mix 25 as the Mid-American Conference club overwhelmed the Hilltoppers from the Ohio Valley Conference. It was Western Kentucky's first defeat after five wins at home.

"They just drove the ball down our throat," commented Johnny Oldham, the Western Kentucky mentor.

"We particularly hate to lose in the big city," Oldham went on. "Our tonsils are sore from looking up at these big buildings."

Jim McDaniels, the Hilltoppers' 7-foot soph, tallied 16 points and fouled out midway of the second half. Jerome Perry was high with 24 points. Rutgers crushed St. Louis 91-67 behind Dick Stewart's 30 points in the first Garden game.

Ron Washington also scored 30 points in leading Wichita State to a surprise 93-88 home court victory over Iowa. Washington got the go-ahead basket with less than two minutes to play after John Johnson's layup had tied the score for the Hawkeyes at 87-87.

It was Wichita's first victory and the first defeat for the 19th-ranked Hawkeyes. Western Kentucky and Iowa were the only teams in The Associated Press 20 to see action.

Colorado continued to impress with a 112-81 rout of Arizona State at Boulder. Cliff Meely's 22 points paced the Buffaloes, who now boast a 5-1 record.

Ralph Barnett's layup gave George Washington an overtime 74-73 victory over the Georgetown Hoyas.

In other games, Texas A&M whipped Louisiana Tech 102-83, Wake Forest overwhelmed Baldwin-Wallace 110-83, Colgate downed Lehigh 96-83, Tulsa beat Fullerton State 93-84, Montana State downed Seattle 82-74 and Providence turned back Rhode Island 86-70.

Southern Mississippi won the Hattiesburg, Miss., Invitational by beating East Tennessee 93-75 behind Johnny Vitano's 31 points.

Hogs' Ingram Has Chance at Baylor

WACO, Tex., (AP) — Baylor University appeared today to be waiting on Saturday's Liberty Bowl game before naming a new head football coach.

Jerry Claiborne, coach of Virginia Tech and a former assistant at Texas A&M under Paul "Bear" Bryant, is said to be a prime choice of the Baylor faculty athletic council. But there is some speculation over whether Claiborne really wants the job or is just using the possibility that he may be hired as a wedge for a higher salary at Tech. After the Liberty Bowl game in which his team plays, he will be free to meet with Baylor officials if he wishes.

Cecil (Hootie) Ingram of Arkansas and Mike Campbell of Texas — both assistants — have talked with Edwin P. Horner, chairman of the athletic council. Sources at Baylor say Campbell appears to have the edge over Ingram if it comes to choosing between the two men.

Horner declines to say whether Baylor is waiting for the end of the Liberty Bowl before it begins serious talks with Claiborne. But each day Baylor loses is hurting it in the race for Texas schoolboy football talent.

Pro Football Favorites Are Picked

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It's the last roundup for the old Hand picker with four big games on the calendar for the final weekend of the regular seasons.

If you think the first 99 games between the Chicago Bears and Green Bay were rough, wait until they meet Sunday in No. 100 at Wrigley Field. The Packers are dead but they would like nothing more than to ruin the Bears' bid for the Central Division title.

A Bear victory would send them into a Dec. 22 playoff at Baltimore for the Western Conference title but a loss would let Minnesota get another shot at the Colts, providing they can handle Philadelphia.

If Kansas City wins at Denver Saturday and Oakland wins at San Diego Sunday, they finish in a tie for the West in the AFL, setting up a playoff Dec. 22 at Oakland. If one falters, the other will get the job of facing the New York Jets for the league crown Dec. 29 at New York.

Last week's 10-3 made the season record 108-42-5 with 65-27-4 in the NFL and 43-15-1 in the AFL. Last chance. All games Sunday, unless otherwise noted.

NFL
Cleveland 31, St. Louis 24 — (Saturday) — Figure to be the decider, now just another game. Browns without Leroy Kelly will be trying to stay healthy for Dallas next week. Favored Cards can shoot the works. But Browns have eight-game win streak going and would like to get even for 27-21 loss to St. Louis.

Minnesota 24, Philadelphia 17 — Vikings have too much defense for Eagles, who are wheeled up after winning two in a row. Minnesota's Joe Kapp turned in one of his best efforts against 49ers and the club should be sky high for the most important game in its history. Vikings won preseason game 52-10.

Green Bay 21, Chicago 16 — It all depends on Bart Starr. If he can play, the Packers should get even for 13-10 loss Nov. 3 on Mac Percival's free kick field goal. Bears must grind it out on ground and go for the field goal. A real hard-knocker. It will be Auld Lang Syne for many Packers and they don't want to go out with a loss.

Baltimore 24, Los Angeles 6 — Another super duper wiped out by last Sunday's results. Rams are out of it now but anxious to prove they belonged. Colts haven't given up touchdown in four games, want to show earlier 27-10 win was no mistake. Roman Gabriel coming off a mild concussion.

Dallas 28, New York 17 — Tom Landry never will let Cowboys lose twice in same season to an Eastern Conference club. Giants will go all out to try to salvage final win. Fran Tarkenton pulled it off once, 27-21 but you don't do that to Dallas twice.

Washington 21, Detroit 14 — Sonny Jurgensen is listed as questionable because of bruised back and ribs. Bob Otto Graham and Joe Schmidt on hot seat, need closing win to protect jobs. Best advice — forget it.

New Orleans 23, Pittsburgh 21 — Saints optimistic about repeating earlier 16-12 win over Steelers. Could be last chance for Coach Bill Austin at Pittsburgh. Charlie Durkes kicking may be decisive again.

San Francisco 24, Atlanta 10 — A nightmare year for Falcons, who were shipped in San Francisco 28-13 in September. John Brodie should shred Atlanta pass defense.

AFL
Kansas City 27, Denver 10 (Saturday) — Chiefs beat Broncos 34-2, in September and don't figure to be derailed with title within reach. Kansas City played ball control against San Diego in 40-3 romp last week, picking off seven passes. It will be run for your life, Marlin Briscoe.

Oakland 28, San Diego 14 — Raiders won their exhibition game in August 31-7 but Chargers snapped their 14-game win streak in October 23-14. If Chiefs win Saturday, Raiders must win Sunday to force a Dec. 22 playoff at Oakland. Raiders have better balance and should make life tough for John Hadl.

Houston 24, Boston 7 — Oilers need win to wrap up second place in East and are starting Don Trull against old mates after success last week against Buffalo. Pats, beaten 38-7 in Miami, facing major shakeup in off season.

New York 31, Miami 21 — Jets' pride will make them put out enough to finish with a win although Dolphins gave them trouble two weeks ago before succumbing 35-27. Joe Namath

to Atlanta
SEATTLE (AP) — Seattle's SuperSonics lost a center, their 24-hour occupancy of fourth place in the Western Division and a 93-91 National Basketball Association decision to Atlanta Thursday night.

It was the only game scheduled in both the NBA and ABA. The winning basket came on a 20-foot jump shot by Walt Hazzard with two seconds left to play.

"I had to kill you, baby," said Hazzard to Sonic General Manager Dick Vetterli, who traded the playmaker to Atlanta for Lennie Wilkens earlier this year.

"We wanted to force them to fire from long range," Seattle Coach Al Bianchi said. "Walt did and made it — and that was it."

But the fiery Bianchi was less calm about the officiating. He went on record as "requesting that Ed Rush not officiate any more of our games."

Seattle's Bob Kauffman was flattened with no whistle sounding and 1:20 to play and Art Harris missed a layup because of what Bianchi considered suspect defense.

"Rush had both calls," Bianchi said.

Early in the second period Dorie Murray, Sonic reserve center, suffered a shoulder separation going up for a rebound. He's expected to be out about 10 days.

Atlanta, with a healthy Zelmo Beaty scoring 32 points, led through most of the game. The Hawks were in front 46-45 at the half and pushed their margin to 80-70 with 10:32 to play.

Wilkens led Seattle with 25 points before fouling out with 3:26 remaining.

The loss dropped the Sonics into a fifth-place tie with Chicago, a half-game back of San Francisco.

And Babe Parilli will share the load and Emerson Boozer gets a workout.

Hope Girls Trip Hughes in Tourney

By RALPH ROUNTON

Star Sports Writer

Forced into their first overtime game of the young season, the Hope Lady Cats used the extra two minutes to trip the Hughes Devilettes 35-29 in the first round of the OBU Invitational last night at Arkadelphia.

Held to only eight points in the regulation second half, Hope outscored the Devilettes 7-1 in the sudden death period to take the win. The Lady Cats moved into the quarterfinals of the tournament, where they tangle with Joe T. Robinson this evening at 7:15 p.m.

The victory upped Hope's mark to 2-4 and tonight's game will force the Ladies to miss a rematch of the '67-68 state finals with Ashdown which had been previously scheduled.

Hughes grabbed a quick 4-2 lead after a minute of play, before both teams hit the first of many cold streaks throughout the game. For 4 1/2 minutes neither squad moved the scoreboard, but a late flurry sent the Lady Cats in front 7-6 at the quarter.

Both teams continued the light skirmishing for a few more minutes, before Dee Singleton hit a free shot to put Hope ahead 11-10 with 2:51 left in the half. From there the Lady Cats began working the ball inside beautifully for a few minutes, and worked up a lead as big as 17-12 which held up 20-16 at intermission.

That third quarter, though, was a disaster for both sides. Hope's guards held Hughes to a mere four points, but the Lady Cats' freeze wouldn't thaw.

With 1:54 left in that quarter Hughes had pulled into a 20-20 tie, but substitute forward Mary Beth Millican broke the ice with a single free throw which held up as 21-20 margin at the period's end.

Quickly Singleton popped a field goal to make it 23-20, but then Hope hit a final cold streak that nearly cost the game.

For five minutes nothing happened, and the Lady Cat guards saved the day by holding Hughes to only four points in that era. Those last three, however, had put the Devilettes back into a 24-23 lead with 3:42 remaining.

Finally Singleton ended it with a layup to regain the lead 25-24, but Mary Grace retaliated to change it back over to 26-25 for Hughes. Jo McKemie hit a charity shot with 1:06 left to tie it up for the Lady Cats, but Gracey connected again with 38 seconds on the clock to put Hope behind 28-26.

Then with 0:26 to play Dee Singleton was fouled, and the freshman kept her composure and sank both ends of the one-and-one. That saved the day, as neither team could put the ball through the hoop before the buzzer proclaimed overtime at 28-41.

McKemie sank a pair of free throws early to make it 30-28, before a bevy of turnovers kept the board still. Then with 0:52 to play in the overtime it was Singleton tipping the ball through to make the lead 32-28.

Hughes picked up one point on a free shot with twenty seconds remaining to cut the margin to 32-29, but it was Dee Singleton once more applying the clincher with a big three-point play right before buzzer to make the

A-State Has Rough Trip to Texas

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP) — Several members of the Arkansas State University football team got sick Thursday during the Indians' plane trip from Jonesboro to Arlington.

The turbulent plane ride included a 2 1/2 hour layover in Little Rock caused by poor flying conditions.

After the layover, the team's two chartered planes hit another storm. One plane hit an air pocket and several players were thrown out of their seats.

Reserve defensive end Jim Scurlow received a cut on his forehead.

However, the Indians were able to work out after their arrival here. The Indians will play North Dakota State Saturday in the Pecan Bowl.

final score read 35-29.

Once again the Lady Cat guards, Juane Reynolds, Sharon East, and Jenny Callicott throttled the opposition, and kept fouling out.

Joe T. Robinson, a high school outside of Little Rock, has always boasted of fine teams, and their annual girls tourney in the best affair of its kind in the state. They defeated Stephens 40-37 in the first round yesterday, and they finished third at OBU last year when Hope was runnerup.

Also, tonight, of course, the Bobcats travel to Ashdown to face the Panthers, and a junior boys game may be scheduled after the senior girls' cancellation. Last year the Bobcats whipped Ashdown by scores of 61-39, and 72-57, and this year the locals should be about evenly matched with Ashdown.

The Fighting Could Be Everywhere

By EDWARD MAGRI

SAN REMO, Italy (AP) — Police are girding for possible fighting outside as well as inside the ring when Italy's Nino Benvenuti defends his world middleweight championship against Don Fullmer of Utah Saturday night.

Italy's protest-conscious students have denounced the event as a capitalistic feast and say they expect colleagues to swarm in from Genoa and other cities for a demonstration to outdo the chanting, egg-throwing rally students staged last week at the opening of Milan's La Scala opera house.

Angered because most of the slim total of 2,500 seats in the Aristo Theater went on sale at $80, students labeled the fight as an evening of discrimination against the have-nots.

Authorities fear spectators may have to duck eggs and other missiles even though San Remo students say they only plan a sit-in to block the entrance to the arena.

Police reinforcements have been summoned from Genoa to throw a curtain of security guards around the theater so fans won't have to fight students off.

In Milan, some 200 students greeted opening night opera-goers with chants of "Ho, Ho, Ho Chi Minh" and volleys of eggs and tomatoes.

The promoters have other headaches, too. By Thursday, the bout was not a sellout and word went around that prices had been cut to make sure all 2,500 seats were occupied.

Fired Umps Meet With Baseball Head

BOSTON (AP) — The historic first meeting between the American League president and the Umpires Association was like a "live-in" as threats of a congressional probe were issued in Washington.

AL President Joe Cronin, who joined the umpiring world by firing veterans Al Salerno and Bill Valentine last September, and representatives of the Umpires Association met for 2 1/2 hours behind closed doors Thursday at league headquarters.

Neither Cronin nor the association representatives had much to say after the meeting. However, they went out of their way to indicate a sweetness and light atmosphere prevailed.

About the same time, Rep. Frank Thompson, D-N.J., chairman of a House labor subcommittee, said in Washington that plans for early hearings on the firing of the two umpires have been expanded to include the labor problems of professional athletes generally.

"I have seen no evidence that American League officials are taking affirmative steps to give these two men a hearing or any other kind of reconsideration," said Thompson, who apparently was unaware of the Boston meeting.

Thompson, who said he was concerned because he is a baseball fan, hinted in a statement that he may not open his hearings if Cronin reinstates the umpires fired with a couple of weeks left in the season.

John Reynolds Jr. of Chicago, the Umpires Association attorney, and Cronin said in a joint statement that "the matter of Salerno-Valentine was discussed and further discussion will be held."

Cronin and Reynolds called the meeting "cordial" and agreed "considerable progress" was made. They also apparently agreed not to disclose the issues, saying only that "numerous matters" were discussed.

Reddies and Bears Run Neck-to-Neck

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Henderson Reddies and the State College of Arkansas Bears continue to run neck-and-neck toward a showdown in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference basketball race.

The defending champion Reddies and SCA both posted their four straight league victories Thursday night, which turned out to be the biggest ulcer-producing night of the season so far.

Three of the five league games played were decided by a total of four points. Another was decided in overtime.

The close one saw Henderson nudge Southern State 69-67, SCA nip Arkansas Tech 78-77 and Arkansas A&M clip Ozarks 78-77. In the other two games, Hendrix downed Arkansas College 55-42 and Ouachita went into overtime to defeat Harding 82-74.

Henderson, behind 39-35 at the half, shot into the lead with 11:08 remaining and never trailed again, although the Reddies were unable to muster more than a five-point lead. Danny Davis gunned in 29 points to lead Henderson. Al Skxxx Flanagan had 16 for Southern State.

State College trailed Tech most of the game. The Wonder Boys enjoyed a 71-64 lead with only 6:34 left to play, but were unable to hold it and SCA went ahead at 75-74. Ray Malcolm pumped in 31 points to pace the Bear attack. Paul Brown got 25

College Grid Bowl Season Opens Sat.

By MIKE BRYSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

College football's bowl season opens full blast Saturday when atonement-minded Virginia Tech squares off against explosive Mississippi in the Liberty Bowl at Memphis, Tenn., the first of more than a dozen major bowl games during the next four weeks.

Virginia Tech, 7-3, will be trying to avenge its 1966 Liberty Bowl loss to Miami, and possibly present Coach Jerry Claiborne a farewell gift. He's considered a top candidate for coaching vacancies at Kentucky or Baylor.

Mississippi rode the arms and legs of sensational sophomore quarterback Archie Manning to a 6-3-1 mark this season.

"Manning can run and pass, and rolls out with the ball," said Claiborne. "Mississippi has a lot of receivers, and about the time they tell you to sleep with Manning's running and passing they give the ball to Steve Hindman or Bo Bowen ... and they can go."

Ole Miss boss Johnny Vaught, sending his 12th straight team to a bowl, had almost the same thing to say about his foe. "Virginia Tech hasn't thrown much. They rock you to sleep with power, and then when you're not expecting it they throw the bomb."

A crowd of 50,000 is expected for the 12:15 p.m., EST, regional telecast (ABC-TV).

Meanwhile, North Dakota State, the No. 1 team in The Associated Press' final small college poll, tackles Arkansas State in the Pecan Bowl at Arlington, Tex. — one of four NCAA college division championships to be decided Saturday.

The others are Fresno State, Calif., vs. Humboldt State, Calif. in the Camella Bowl at Sacramento, Calif.; Louisiana Tech vs. Akron in the Grantland Rice Bowl at Murfreesboro, Tenn., and Indiana University, Pa., vs. Delaware in the Indoor Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J. All four games will be televised regionally (ABC-TV).

Oldest Pro Grid Rivals to Meet

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The 100th renewal of the National Football League's oldest rivalry was scheduled to be the swan song for Willie Davis. Now he's not sure.

"When I went to camp last summer, I really had the feeling that we would win a fourth straight championship," the Green Bay Packer defensive end said. "If we had won, this would have been my last year."

The Packers slipped under new Coach Phil Bengtson to a 5-7-1 record, their worst in a decade.

But they still will have a say in who wins the Central Division crown.

If Green Bay wins Sunday over Chicago, the title and a Western Conference playoff berth goes to Minnesota if the Vikings beat Philadelphia. If the Packers lose, Chicago will meet the Baltimore Colts.

"We fell short in such a way that it has left a bad taste in my mouth," said Davis, an 11-year veteran from Grambling, La. College.

"If I was convinced that through the draft and off-season trades the club would be better without me, then I might call it quits," Davis said. "I'm not sure right now what I'm going to do."

For Tech, now 1-3 in the AIC. Ozarks, now 0-4 in league play, made a determined bid to get its first victory, but A&M was able to withstand the Ozark rally to register the triumph. A&M, 2-2 in the AIC, led 35-33 at the half and rode the 37 - point production of Randy Grice to the victory. Joe Hickey and Bob Sloan each had 22 points for Ozarks.

Tied 70-70 at the end of regulation play, Ouachita held Harding to only four points in the overtime period and that proved the difference. The Baptist scored 12 points in the overtime to break open what had been a close game. Robert Cornelius meshed 28 points for Ouachita, now 3-1 in the AIC, and Bobby McKee scored 28 for Harding, now 2-2.

Hendrix had little trouble with Arkansas College as it spurred to an early 15-0 lead. Ronnie Metcalf led Hendrix with 16 points and Ronnie Brogdon tallied 14 for AC. Both teams are 1-3 in the conference.

Mr. Wilhelm Just Keeps Hurling Along

By HARRY EISENBERG
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP) — Old Man River could take a pointer or two from Hoyt Wilhelm when it comes to rolling along.
The rubber-armed 45-year-old relief specialist accounted for six major league records and three American League records this past season, according to figures released today by Joe Cronin, American League president.
Wilhelm, now with the new Kansas City Royals, appeared in 72 games for the Chicago White Sox in 1968.
His contributions to the major league record section were: most consecutive errorless games for a pitcher (319), most games as a relief pitcher (885), most career victories in relief (111), most games finished in career (587), most innings pitched in relief (1,664) and most games pitched (937).

The right-hander also extended three of his own league records. They were: most games finished (404), most games as a relief pitcher (526) and most games won as a relief pitcher (68).

In all, American Leaguers broke or tied 105 sundry marks in 1968.

Eight of those are credited to huge Frank Howard of the Washington Senators, who set major league records for most home runs in one week (10), most home runs in five consecutive games (8) and most home runs in six consecutive games (10).

Howard, who led the league in home runs with 44, also set a league record for most home runs in four consecutive games (7), and tied another loop mark for most consecutive games hitting a home run (6).

In records not quite as impressive, Howard broke the major league mark for most consecutive years 100 or more strikeouts (7), and tied records for fewest stolen bases (0), and fewest times caught stealing (0).

Detroit's Eddie Mathews, who announced his retirement after 17 big league seasons, established major league marks for most games as a third baseman (2,181), most chances accepted at third (6,361), and most assists by a third baseman (4,322).

Wilbur Wood, the White Sox left-handed relief specialist, set major league marks for most games pitched in a season (88), most games pitched in a season with none complete (88), and most games in a season for a relief pitcher (86).

Among other major league marks set this year were most strikeouts in a career (1,710) by Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, fewest .300 batters in a season (one-Boston's Carl Yastrzemski), most grand slams in one week (3-Detroit's Jim Northrup), and the lowest league batting average for the season (.230).

putting an extra strain on them.

Children's feet should have the same protection as those of adults.

Your feet should be placed squarely on the floor whether you are sitting, standing or walking.

Your feet should be dried after bathing as thoroughly as you dry your face. This applies especially to the space between your toes.

Prompt care of minor foot ailments prevents major troubles.

When your feet hurt, you hurt all over.

The human foot is the mirror of health. Often the first sign of a general bodily condition, such as diabetes, gout, arthritis and impaired circulation, appears in the foot.

Q—My doctor is giving me Valium for nervous tension. Can this drug be taken indefinitely? If not, please name one that can. What is dilantin used for?

A—Diazepam (Valium) is a minor tranquilizer. Although the drug is not habit-forming, no one should take any kind of tranquilizer indefinitely. A course in progressive relaxation would be much more rewarding than a course of any kind of tranquilizer I could name.

Diphenhydantoin (Dilantin) is an anticonvulsant that is used chiefly in the control of epilepsy.

Q—What can be done for syringomyelia? I have had it for a long time and it is slowly getting worse.

A—In this disease of the spinal cord there is a scattered loss of sensation, a wasting of muscles and curvature of the spine. The disease progresses slowly and there may be periods of remission.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Every season is open season for foot ailments. Here are some tips from the American Podiatry Association.

It's not the height of your arch that determines the health of your foot. A flat foot may be a useful foot while a high-arched foot may be a painful one.

Feet are rarely exactly the same size but shoes are made as if they were. Always try on both shoes before you buy them. I learned this the hard way.

In addition to affecting the heart and circulation, obesity can cause painful feet by

QUICK QUIZ

Q—Where is the only place in the United States where four states meet?
A—Where Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico and Utah come together. A monument marks the site.

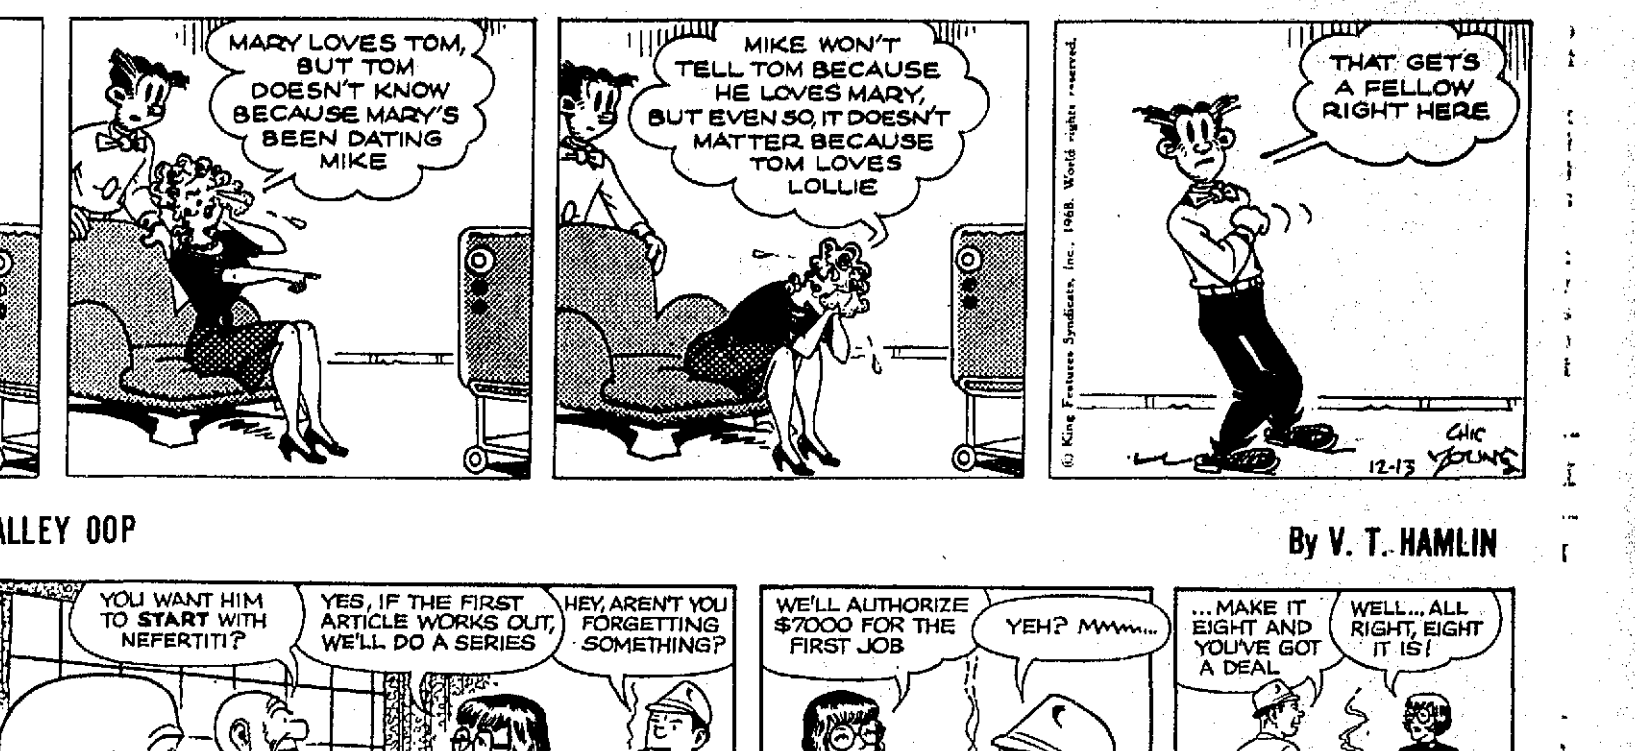

Q—What animal eats bees?
A—The skunk has the reputation of digging up nests of yellowjackets or wasps with its sharp claws and eating the grubs, for insects are a staple in their diet.

Tears

Oh, the power of tears! At times they are more lovely than her smiles. The damaged finger is a major catastrophe in this child's life. Trust is radiant in her eyes. A mother was near to lessen the pain from the misfortune. Perhaps you too have been hurt and deep in the heart.

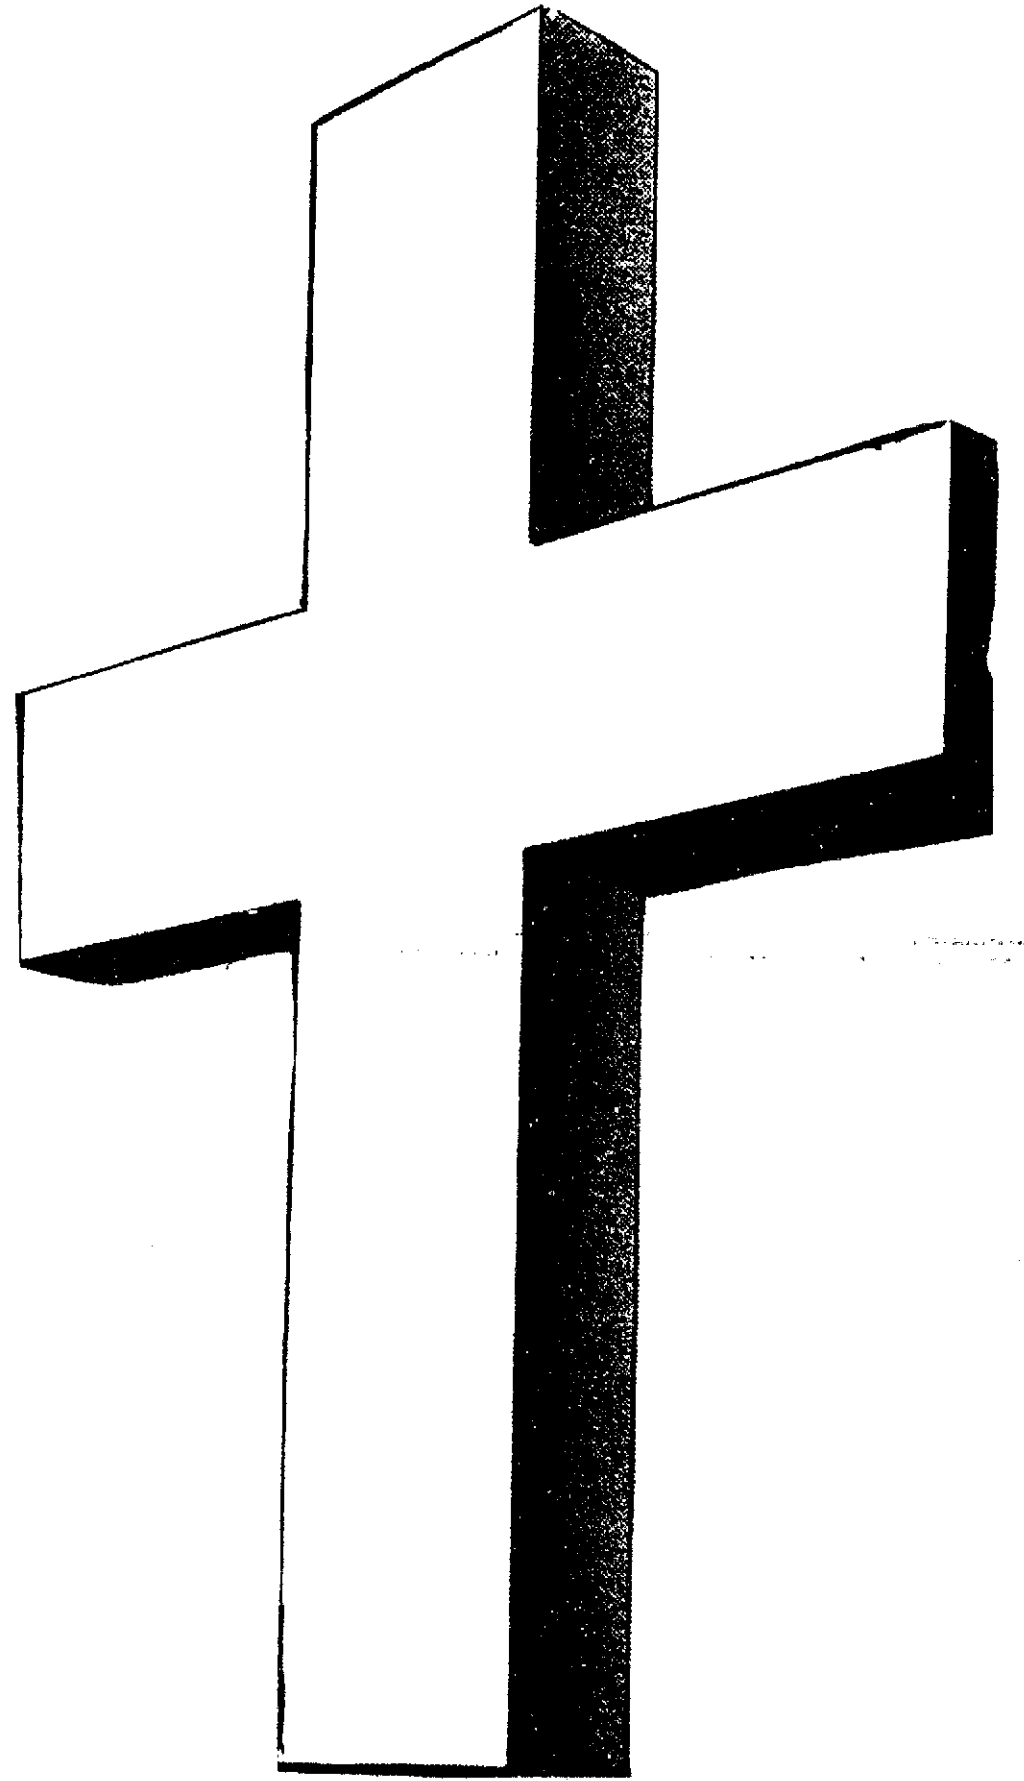

Did you shed a tear? Try it sometime. It might get some stories told which you could tell in no other way. You may not have a mother, but one thing sure... you do have a God.

Tears move people. They tell stories of deep meaning. Maybe the world should cry more. It would offer more opportunity for God to "come in." Then soften up and let your lacrymal glands work more freely.

Someone is waiting to kiss away every tear.

Seeks Aid to Get Married
LONDON (AP) - Eleanora
Ginsberg, 39, of Moscow has written to U.N. Secretary General U Thant asking him to help her marry her British fiance.
Her letter was posted in London by her fiance, Dereck Dea-don, 1916.

Life In Arkansas

By TOMMY YATES
Associated Press Writer
This is the 20th Century, and you'd think people would know better than to rob a bank. They do though, and worse, some manage to get away with it.
The figure isn't on the tip of the memory but Arkansas must rank high among states in bank robberies and burglaries. In November alone, there were two bank burglaries and one robbery: $12,000 from a Little Rock bank, and more have occurred since.
As in any sport, I mean crime, the police solve most of the bank stick-ups, but now they are receiving even more assistance from those who worry almost as much as those who have money in the bank-the bankers.
William N. Campbell, president of the Arkansas Bankers Association and president of the First National Bank of Eastern Arkansas at Forrest City, announced recently that the association is offering rewards for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those in-burglaries recently in Arkansas.
The bankers have a permanent reward program. Anyone supplying information leading to the arrest and conviction of those involved in bank robberies or burglaries can be eligible to receive a reward up to $1,000.
What's the percentage of being in position to obtaining such information? The odds are probably high against it, but they may be better than they are of winning $1,000 at the local supermarket.
Anyway, it's a simple case of the bankers chasing the crooks, and, it seems, that by hook or crook they intend to win.
Miss Ginsberg says in the letter that she and Deason, 38, have been trying to become reu-nited since 1964 when Deason was ordered to leave Russia three weeks before they were due to marry.
Since then he has been refused permission to re-enter Russia and Eleanora has been refused permission to leave.
The couple met while on holiday at Sochi on the Black Sea in 1916.

Santa and bride, Rachael

Santa Claus paid a visit to the Hope B & PW Club at its Christmas dinner party Thursday night, December 12 in the Diamond. With a Ho, Ho, Ho he mingled with the 36 members and one guest, Sharon Carman, throughout the serving of the turkey dinner. The banquet table was attractively decorated with bayberry candles, holly, berries, and miniature Santas. A spray of large bells formed the background for the head table. The centerpiece of flowers and candles was given as a door prize to Ora Mae Moody.

Though all committee chairmen were responsible for the Christmas party, it was Delores McBride who took Santa Claus and all attending the dinner on a merry search for a Mrs. Santa. Among the members of the Hope B & PW Club, the jolly North Pole visitor chose three "finalists," Mrs. Martha Stephenson, Mrs. Rachael Edmiston, and Mrs. Opal Hervey. They underwent several tests to determine their qualifications as Mrs. Santa. Mrs. Edmiston won, and a mock wedding took place with a visiting preacher, a bridal bouquet, and appropriate nuptial music.

Gifts were distributed to everyone, and all joined in singing Christmas carols and seasonal songs under the direction of Santa. Minus his beard and pipe, he had a beautiful soprano voice and looked remarkably like Mrs. Verlaine Jones, Club president Margie Vickers made a few announcements, and the evening's activities were concluded when the guest performer sang "O Holy Night."

IRS Changes Interpretation on Gun Act

By A. L. SCHWARTZ III
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service has reversed an earlier interpretation of the 1968 Gun Control Act, putting strong new teeth into the controversial measure four days before it becomes law.

"This is going to disappoint a lot of these gun people," said a spokesman for the IRS which is charged with enforcing firearms control.

Over-all, the bill that was prompted by the assassination of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy last June and cleared Congress Oct. 10 bans the interstate mail order sales of all guns and ammunition.

It also bans over-the-counter sales to nonresidents of a state unless the states are adjacent and the law in each state "permits" such sales.

When the IRS issued proposed regulations embodying the law last month, it said the adjacent-state sales would be legal unless one or both states enacted laws specifically prohibiting them.

But Thursday the IRS said it had been wrong—that such sales would be permitted after the over-all bill takes effect Monday only when states pass laws permitting them.

The effect, said an IRS attorney, is to shut off at least temporarily all individual sales of firearms across state lines.

The section of the gun control act that applies says a sale to a resident of a contiguous state is to be legal "if the purchaser's state of residence permits such a sale or delivery by law, . . . (and) the sale fully complies with the legal conditions in both contiguous states."

However, a Senate attorney who worked on the legislation when it was in House-Senate conference committee, said "What it means is that sales are permitted if lawful in each state. It doesn't say there is to be positive action."

The IRS said it reviewed its interpretation after objections by Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., just before a public hearing on the proposed regulations Nov. 21.

Law, Order Proposals Favored

By BILL SUMMONS
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas legislators are inclined to favor so-called "law and order" proposals except those requiring the registration of guns, an Associated Press survey indicates.

The survey dealt with four questions that generally came under the law and order label, and a majority of the lawmakers indicating their sentiment on the questions favored three of them.

The exception was gun registration, even though the question dealt only with the registration of "some or all pistols."

It did not concern registration of rifles or shotguns.

The Arkansas Law Enforcement Association, the Association of Chiefs of Police and other law enforcement groups say they will propose a gun registration measure to the General Assembly after it begins its legislative session Jan. 14.

But despite such police backing for registration of pistols, the legislators responding to the survey questionnaire disapproved.

The questionnaire went to the 100 Arkansas House members and the 35 Arkansas Senate members. Responses were received from 45 of them.

Only 11 said they "generally favored" enactment of laws requiring the registration "by owner or purchaser of some or all pistols."

On the other hand, 21 of the lawmakers said they were "generally against" such a registration proposal. The others classed themselves as undecided.

The question which got the largest amount of support asked whether the legislators favored establishment of a broader system of selecting juries "to guarantee they will be more representative of the community as a whole."

Twenty-seven of the responding legislators said they generally favored this proposal, with only three stating opposition to it. The others were undecided.

The proposed enactment of a "stop and frisk" law also got the support of a majority of the General Assembly members responding to the survey questionnaire.

The question asked whether they favored proposed enactment of a law "to allow police to halt and search persons about whom the officers discern suspicious actions or appearance."

The survey results showed 24 legislators generally favored such a proposal, seven opposed it and 14 were undecided.

The other "law and order" question which got majority support among the responding legislators asked if they favored "enactment of new search and seizure laws to replace the state's current search warrant laws."

This proposal also has the support of some police groups and some attorneys involved in prosecutions of suspected criminals.

The survey showed 23 legislators generally for the proposal, with six saying they were "generally against." The others were undecided.

Financial Aid to Students Is Proposed

By GARVIN HUDGENS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A proposal that the federal government provide direct financial aid to students has drawn opposition from an organization representing many of the nation's state universities and colleges.

In a report issued in New York Thursday, the Carnegie Commission on Higher Education proposed that the federal government increase its spending for education from its present annual level of $3.5 billion to $13 billion by 1976, partly to provide direct aid to students through a loan bank.

Officials of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges said the report was disappointing. Any increased federal spending for education should go directly to the schools, who could then pass the benefits on to the students, they said.

Russell I. Thackery, executive director of the association, which represents 100 public colleges and universities, said his group is sympathetic to the report's hope for providing aid to disadvantaged students.

But he said the Carnegie plan ignores the institutions themselves for the purpose of widening educational opportunities for all qualified students.

He said that increasing federal aid to the schools themselves would enable them to cut the costs for students.

"That would mean that a vast majority of qualified students could go to college without the bureaucracy which will be essential to administer any program of direct financial assistance to students," Thackery declared.

"If funds are channelled through individuals, there is a chance that many institutions which already are operating at substantial losses will be inclined to raise costs and charges more rapidly," Thackery said.

The reaction to the direct federal aid proposal from other educators was uncertain.

Norman Topping, president of the University of Southern California, a private school, said "I think there's merit in the idea . . . But whether or not this (financial) burden should be placed on the federal government, or state and local government, I don't know."

The president of another private school, Paul R. Anderson of Temple University, indicated he thought increased federal spending should be allocated between the colleges and the students, but with the students getting the larger share.

The opposition to the loan plan was supported by Wisconsin University President Fred Harvey Harrington. "It's a good report," he said, "but a great many of us (university presidents) feel it should have included institutional grants."

The proposed student bank would be designed to enable students to obtain loans for educational needs with repayment to be made after graduation on a percentage of earnings basis.

"The bank proposal," commented Thackery, "raises the question of where its funds are going to come from. It would Illinois—Hospital administrators in Chicago said employee absentee rates were four times as high as normal and warned outpatient services at some hospitals might have to be curtailed. Wheaton College in Wheaton, Ill., said it would close for Christmas vacation Friday—five days early—because of the flu.

Iowa—Several cases of Hong Kong flu have been confirmed at the University of Iowa in Des Moines and at Parsons College in Fairfield. Dr. Arnold Reeve, chief of the preventable disease division of the state health department, said there was no epidemic yet, but warned the disease could spread when college students went home for college.

Massachusetts—College infirmaries are reported filling up, although no schools or colleges are closed. Dr. Nicholas J. Flumara, director of the state's division of communicable diseases, predicted 30 per cent of the people in the greater Boston area would get the flu when the epidemic reaches its peak—expected around the first of the year.

Nebraska—Spokesmen for the Omaha school district said the number of absent teachers has increased from a normal figure of 80 to 85 to between 110 and 140. Creighton University suspended Friday and Saturday classes at the colleges of business administration and arts and sciences.

Washington, D.C.—The Hospital Council of the National Capitol area asked for voluntary restrictions on hospital visitors, warning that visitors can bring flu to hospitalized patients in weakened condition. Officials reported 24 of the 47 nurses who teach at Trinity College, a Catholic girls school, have the flu, and six per cent of the employees and patients at St. Elizabeth's, a federal mental hospital, are suffering with the disease.

seem that they would either have to be drawn from higher taxes or from money freed by a cut in federal support in some other area."

In its report, the Carnegie Commission points out that the necessary expansion in funds for higher education can be met by what it terms a relatively modest increase in the percentage of the Gross National Product used for higher education—from 2 per cent in 1967 to 3 per cent in 1976.

Within this period of time, the commission noted, growth in the American economy is expected to almost double the gross national product from $763 to $1400 billion.

The commission also proposes that each college or university participating in the direct aid program would receive a cost of education allowance for every federal grant holder at the institution.

These funds, according to the Commission, could be used at the school's discretion to pay for operational and instructional costs related to the student aid program.

42 Missing After Jet Explodes

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — A Pan American 707 jet exploded over the Caribbean sea and plunged into the water Thursday night 16 miles from Venezuela's international airport north of Caracas.

Fifty-one persons were reported aboard, 42 passengers and a crew of nine, including a trainee stewardess. A search for survivors was continuing, but none was reported.

Officials said it was possible not all the bodies would be recovered.

Seven bodies were reported recovered before dawn.

A passenger list released by Pan American in New York listed 21 persons from addresses in the United States, but a number of these had Latin names, and it was not immediately known if they had been residing or visiting there.

Another five passengers were listed from addresses in Canada, one was from Italy and one passenger was believed to be from Ireland. The airline listed the other 14 passengers from Venezuela.

The pilot was Capt. Sidney E. Stillbaugh, 50, of West Islip, N.Y.

Among wreckage recovered were interior cabin fittings and some life rafts that inflate automatically upon contact with water.

The big jet was ending a non-stop flight from New York to Caracas. The airport control tower said it lost contact after the plane reported its approach one minute before it was due to land at 10 p.m.

"I heard a strong noise and then I saw a red ball fall towards the sea," said a guard at the La Guaira Naval Base, 12 miles north of Caracas.

Other residents near the shore also reported seeing the explosion. The wreckage was reported scattered over a wide area.

Radio Aeropuerto, a commercial station at the airport, said the plane reported it was in trouble before its radio went dead, but an airline spokesman said the pilot radioed the airport only "no maintenance," a routine transmission indicating no service would be required on the ground.

The plane had left New York's Kennedy Airport at 4:40 p.m.

Among the passengers was Mrs. Olga Antonetti de Dugarte, who had been "Miss Venezuela" in 1962. A resident of New York, she and her 4-year-old daughter were coming to spend Christmas with relatives.

A prominent Venezuelan advertising executive, Luis Beltran Gonzalez was also on the plane returning from a business trip to New York.

The Wandal of Political Pressure on Welfare Folks

A story painfully familiar to this editor was unfolded Thursday in Little Rock when State Welfare Commissioner Len E. Blaylock reported to the State Welfare Board that an investigation proved Marion H. Crank, the Democratic nominee for governor, had used the official rolls of welfare recipients when mailing out political material in the general election campaign.

If Mr. Blaylock expected the Democratic-controlled state board to do anything about this public scandal he had no better luck than your editor experienced in a similar case a decade ago. The state board merely adopted a routine recommendation condemning this abuse of a public trust.

Back in 1957 I circulated a petition to refer to the people the sales tax increase to 3 per cent, and this measure, Act 19, appeared on the general election ballot of 1958.

On Oct. 30, 1958, I made a state-wide television speech, paid for personally, in which I disclosed the scandalous use of the welfare rolls for campaign purposes in behalf of Act 19. So you may judge for yourself I am reprinting that particular portion of the 30-minute television script, published in The Star of Nov. 1, 1958, as follows:

Transcript
"On Oct. 3 an old man brought a slip of paper to the office of Hope Star and told me it was mailed in the same envelope with his welfare check, which as you know is covered by both federal and state money. The slip said:

"The money which makes your grant possible comes mostly from the sales tax. This tax will be voted on Nov. 4 in the general election. Your vote for Act 19 will prevent this cut in your grant. Get your friends and relatives to vote for Act 19."

"That same night I sent photostats of the threat to Little Rock to ascertain what authority Welfare Commissioner Carl Adams had to include electioneering material in a mailing of federal-participating funds—but I got nowhere.

"In the Little Rock Democrat Oct. 6 Commissioner Adams confirmed the state-wide mailing and said federal authorities had approved of the notice before it was sent out.

"On Oct. 9 I reported this matter by telegram to Miss Katherine Goodwin, Acting Director, Bureau of Public Assistance, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D. C., and asked for a federal statement.

"The following day Miss Goodwin wired me from Washington: "We have requested a complete report on this situation. In the meantime we would prefer not to comment." (End of transcript)

Days, weeks, months, years went by—without further report. There never was any investigation, of course. Confronted by confirmed evidence of political pressure against the welfare captive vote the politicians of state and federal governments out-faced a public scandal by contriving a conspiracy of silence.

Three years later I launched a series of speeches in three states, opening at Arkadelphia Oct. 19, 1961, under a title which fellow editors called a good switch: "Representation Without Taxation." I said:

"The political record shows with one-fifth of our population dependent upon public charity the politicians habitually coerce these captive voters to further their own ends in shaping legislation.

"The time has come to strike from the voting rolls all those receiving cash grants or surplus commodities. You do this, and the politicians' grab for arbitrary power will be broken."

Events and words from a decade ago—if I'm not a good prophet then I'll pass for one until a better appears.

Welfare Rolls Used, Says Blaylock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock told the state Welfare Board Thursday that it had been "definitely established" that welfare rolls were used during the recent state political campaign.

Blaylock noting this practice was against state law, said, however, that he had "not been able to establish the person or persons responsible for making welfare lists available to political candidates."

Blaylock had charged just before the Nov. 5 general election that campaign forces of Democratic gubernatorial nominee Marion H. Crank were using welfare rolls.

Blaylock said the regional office of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare in Dallas, Tex., had expressed "a concern over this matter because they have had to reprimand Arkansas for illegal use of welfare lists for political mailings in each election year since 1956."

The board, later in the meeting, adopted a resolution "condemning" the use of welfare rolls for political mailing in the future.

Blaylock noted that the practice had gone on in the past. He said it was "what I call hanging a crust of bread over the ballot box."

Blaylock said he found evidence that Crank had utilized the welfare rolls in every county in the state except Randolph and Searcy.

Spreading Hong Kong Flu Has Forced Some Schools to Close

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The spreading Hong Kong flu epidemic has forced the closing of some schools and colleges and raised absenteeism in business and industry.

The new strain of flu has spread from Los Angeles—where officials say almost 300,000 adults and children are absent from work or school—to New York City where Adelphi University in suburban Garden City canceled undergraduate classes until Jan. 5, saying, "The Hong Kong flu has hit."

The Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point began Christmas vacation eight days early after about half of the 728 midshipmen were stricken.

The National Communicable Disease Center said deaths from pneumonia and influenza have exceeded normal expectations and termed the flu outbreak an epidemic. The center said outbreaks of flu and respiratory diseases from 30 states have been reported, with Hong Kong flu confirmed in 14 states, Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia.

Table Shape Strangles Peace Talks

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP) — The United States and South Vietnam are reported preparing to propose a two-sided round table for the Paris peace talks, but a Hanoi spokesman says no matter what the shape, the table must be four-sided.

Chief U.S. negotiator W. Averell Harriman and South Vietnamese Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky met for 90 minutes Thursday and were said to have agreed on a new offer to Hanoi's representatives in the lengthening dispute delaying the start of the expanded peace talks.

Preserving their contention that the conference should be a two-sided affair, the allies were said to be proposing that the delegations sit at two semicircular tables or at a round table out in two.

"Whatever the proposal," a Communist spokesman told a newsman, "it must be made clear that the conference is one of four delegations. . . In a word, the shape of the table must be in conformity with the four-delegation conference."

The quarrel over table shapes and other status symbols is taken seriously by the rival diplomats as they maneuver for position.

The Americans and the South Vietnamese contend the peace conference is to be composed of two sides, with themselves on one side and their Communist opponents on the other. They recognize the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front, only as an outlaw group and are willing to talk with its representatives only as members of North Vietnam's delegation.

The Communists insist that the NLF is the only authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people and must have separate, equal status at the peace table.

The Communists already have rejected U.S. proposals for a rectangular table or two long tables face to face. They have called for a square table or four tables set in diamond or circular arrangements.

The Harriman-Ky accord followed persistent pressure by the South Vietnamese delegation for the United States to take a firm position on the two-side formula. The Americans have been less concerned than the Vietnamese about the prestige items.

Ky emerged from the meeting saying "a full understanding" was reached. Harriman reported the Saigon leader was "very flexible" within "the principles that both of us are committed to."

Big Enemy Offensive Is Indicated, May Involve 70,000 Men

By FED S. HOFFMAN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. analysts say there are strong indications that the North Vietnamese are preparing thrusts in two key areas of South Vietnam, principally with troops brought back from Cambodia and Laos.

These analysts estimate as many as 70,000 enemy troops are likely to be involved in a new winter offensive, which some officials believe entered its early stages this week.

As they judge it, the enemy's aim is not to take and hold cities but to show — with the peace talks stalled in Paris — that North Vietnam is still able to take the battle initiative.

Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford told a news conference Tuesday it was too early then to tell whether the enemy planned a winter offensive, although there had been signs of a buildup.

Apparently the evidence crystallized to the satisfaction of the analysts later.

About three months ago, some 30,000 to 40,000 North Vietnamese soldiers in five divisions were reported by U.S. intelligence to have pulled out of South Vietnam into sanctuaries in neighboring Cambodia and Laos.

The prevailing military opinion at the time was that those divisions were being refitted, resupplied and reinforced for a fourth offensive this year.

High-level U.S. leaders chose to regard that pullback, and an accompanying lull in the fighting, as an indication that North Vietnam wanted to get down to serious peace negotiations in Paris.

Now, with the peace talks still stalled, reports reaching Washington indicate that the enemy's 2 1/2 divisions, left behind when the others pulled back in September, have been increased to six divisions totaling about 450,000 men in the Cambodian border area of Tay Ninh and Binh Long Province northwest and north of Saigon.

American authorities contended the enemy is incapable of sustained fighting because

Bombers Hit Heaviest in Two Months

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — American B52 bombers made their heaviest attacks in two months during the past 48 hours, striking at enemy troops north of Saigon amid strong indications today that the Communist command is preparing a new offensive there.

More than 100 of the big high-altitude bombers dropped 3,000 tons of explosives from noon Wednesday to noon today. A U.S. spokesman said it was the heaviest B52 effort since mid-October.

Reports from field commanders said there are strong indications that the North Vietnamese are preparing thrusts into key areas leading toward Saigon. But no significant ground fight was reported anywhere today.

In the latest B52 missions Thursday night and today waves of the eight-jet Stratofortresses blasted base camps, bunkers, supply depots and infiltration corridors, and maneuvering troops.

Aerial observers reported one strike set off 11 secondary explosions, indicating direct hits on ammunition stores.

The raids were in an umbrella pattern stretching from jungle infiltration routes 75 miles northwest of Saigon to within 27 miles northeast of the capital.

U.S. intelligence sources say 15,000 to 25,000 North Vietnamese troops, and perhaps even 30,000 are deployed along a 100-mile stretch of the Cambodian border in the arc.

U.S. analysts in Washington reported Thursday north of Saigon that there are strong indications these troops are preparing for a new winter offensive, while another 20,000 to 25,000 North Vietnamese detected moving in from Laos are believed setting their sights on Hue, the old imperial capital at the northern end of South Vietnam.

Meanwhile, Vietnamese police and military staffs in Saigon remained on 100 per cent alert after intelligence reports indicated the enemy may step up terrorism and attempt suicide squad attacks on allied installations to commemorate an anniversary.

The Communists celebrate Dec. 19, the anniversary of the first Viet Minh attack in 1946 on the French in Hanoi.

Six Vietnamese civilians were reported wounded today when a grenade exploded in front of a house under construction in Cholon, the Chinese section of Saigon. Authorities said it had not been determined whether the blast was the work of Viet Cong terrorists. They said the house was being built in an alleyway and there reportedly had been a neighborhood dispute about locating it there.

Military spokesmen reported nine enemy shellings overnight, the most serious at Sa Dee, a provincial capital in the Mekong Delta 67 miles southwest of Saigon.
